“Mighty Fortress (In Jesus, the Victory is Won!).” Dates are July 24-28 from 6:00-8:30 p.m. for ages 3 to 10 (and for those who'll enter

CATHOLIC CHARITIES OF NORTHWEST FLORIDA

*Fill the Big Box: Catholic Charities feeds 100 families per month. During these summer months the demand is greater due to children being out of school. Families must provide extra meals to replace the weekday breakfast and lunch meals they were receiving during the school year.

Homeless Shelter Ministry

Let Mary Balkcom know at jmbalkcom@gmail.com if you want to get involved. Our next date to serve is July 1. You can help cook/serve, donate items for the St. Louis meal, or donate generally-needed items each month. This is a great way to do God's work! Parishioners can help by bringing in coffee, creamer, oatmeal and jelly. Also please support the local businesses that help the Shelter as well: Lucky Goat Coffee, Panera Bread, Tasty Pastry, and Publix. When you see managers in these stores, thank them for supporting the Shelter!

Capital Improvement Updates:

This ministry is helping us improve the look and upkeep of our parish! We started anew on July 1st. Our goal this year is $10,000. To date $8,761.00 has been collected in second collection donations and $1,406.50 from Movie Nights for a total of $10,167.50. Yes, we have reached our goal! If you have an idea for a future fundraiser, however, we would still love to hear about it.

Retreat

The Joy of the Feminine Heart Retreat will be held July 14-16, at The Neumann Retreat Center. “His Own Ministry” of Nashville, Tennessee, invites you to join them for a spiritual reprieve through music and ministry that will bring you closer to Jesus through talks, music and prayer. The cost is $100, which includes lodging and all meals. There is a special mother/daughter rate of $150. Register online at www.neumanncenter.org, email dasha@neumanncenter.org or call 224-2971.

Word of Life

“If someone we know has received a prenatal diagnosis, let us ask the Holy Spirit to work through us. May the families of these little children be strengthened and comforted by our affirmation of the truth that their child's life—however long or short—is worth living.” (Supporting Families Who Receive a Prenatal Diagnosis/USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities.) There are support programs and resources across the country to help families that have received a prenatal diagnosis of a disability or life-threatening illness. For information, contact your diocesan office for Family Life or Respect Life Ministry. A list of Respect Life Ministry offices can be found at www.usccb.org/about/pro-life-activities/diocesan-pro-life-offices.cfm.

Statement from Bishop-Elect Bill Wack, CSC

I am incredibly humbled by the Holy Father’s appointment to serve the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee as bishop. Now I know for sure that God is merciful, having called this sinner to serve in this capacity. The first words which came to mind when I heard of the appointment were, “Lord I am not worthy ... but only say the Word...” With joy and zeal, I accept this appointment, and I am thrilled to begin service to God’s people as a bishop. I have always loved being a priest. For me there is nothing higher than the privilege of celebrating the Eucharist and the other sacraments. Over the past 23 years I have grown tremendously in my faith, through the very mysteries I have served. As a priest of the Congregation of Holy Cross, I know of the power of the cross of Christ, and the hope that it brings to all creation. We in Holy Cross strive to be “educators in the faith” wherever we go, and I am happy to continue to do this in the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee. While I embrace a leadership position in the church once again, I believe that I stand to learn much from the very people I will serve. We are all God’s children, for we have been given God’s Spirit. It is our sacred duty to celebrate and practice our faith together, and to make God known, loved and served in all that we do. This is the mandate that Jesus Christ gave the church after the Resurrection, and it remains in force for us today. As a community of faith, we will always face trials and difficulties. Indeed, Jesus said that we must take up our cross if we wish to follow him. But if we come together to support, encourage, and challenge each other, there is no doubt we will not only survive; we will triumph in the end. We know how all of this will end: all is swallowed up in victory. Knowing this gives us hope to endure and to invite others to join us in loving God and neighbor. While I am very sad to be leaving the parish of St. Ignatius Martyr in Austin, TX (where I have served as pastor for the last 8 years), I couldn’t be more excited to move in and get to work here in the diocese. I hope this will be the beginning of a long tenure, so that we may continue to build up the church in this local Church. May God have mercy on us all! Please know of my prayers for you every day. At the same time, remember me in your prayers. Without your help and your prayers, I can do nothing. With God, however, all things are possible.
